SRI SATHYA SAI COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, BHOPAL

Extension Activities

Session 2021-22

11.3.2022

Awareness about disabilities and problems of Divyangjan.

Students of Home Science Department, Psychology Department and Youth Red Cross visited Composit Regional Centre for persons with Disabilites Divyangjan Bhopal.

- Students visited different department and came to know about different disabilities there are 21 Specified disabilities like-
 - 1. Physical disability- locomotor disability, cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy.
 - 2. Visual impairment,
 - 3. Hearing impairment,
 - 4. Speech and language disability.
 - 5. Intellectual disabilities: specific learning disability, autism spectrum disorder, disability due to mental illness, neurological conditions, blood disorder etc.
- Mr. Samal explained about rehabilitation of person with visual impairment through perception of different texture, sound etc.
- Demonstration of use of artificial limbs were given to students.occupational therapist Smt. Poonam explained role of physiotherapy and occupational therapy for rehabilitation school gives training to guardians of Divyangjan so that they can create barrier free environment for persons with disabilities. Students distributed biscuits to Divyangjan.

28 .03 .22

Programmes on Health and Hygiene among slum dwellers of Annanagar

One day camp on health and hygiene among slum dwellers of Annanagar was organized by IQAC, Education Department and Sociology Department of the college under Extension Activities.

Following Programme were organized:

- Dr. Renu Mishra coordinator, IQAC, delivered lecture on personal hygiene.
- Dr. Prerna Shrivastava Assitant Professor, Education, discussed about cleanliness and menstrual hygiene.
- Smt. Laxmi Thakur Assistant Professor, Sociology and students also created awareness about menstrual hygiene issues. Students interacted with girls and women present in the camp discussed about healthy habits.
- Camp ended with distribution of sanitary napkins to women by students. Students also ditributed fruits to create nutritional awareness.

